Cognitive Ecologies and the History of Remembering Jun 29 2020

This book unites research in philosophy and cognitive science with cultural history to re-examine memory in early modern religious practices. Offering an ecological approach to memory and culture, it argues that models derived from Extended Mind and Distributed Cognition can bridge the gap between individual and social models of memory.

North Dakota Real Estate Open House Guest Book Mar 27 2020 The American Bison (Buffalo) has roamed across North Dakota for centuries and became the official Mammal of the United States in 2016. The Native American Tribes hold the Bison dear because they relied on the bison for food, shelter, clothing, and as a significant spiritual animal. Perhaps 30-60 million bison used to roam the country and in 1889 when the government passed stricter laws against gaming there were sadly only about 300-500 left. Did you know Bison can jump 6 feet in the air from a stand still and run 40mph? For an animal that can weigh 2000 lbs. with skinny legs they can easily jump over tall fences! The American Bison (Buffalo) is just one of the many reasons why residents love living in gorgeous North Dakota! A welcoming stylish guest book creates the opportunity to greet and engage with every guest. When given the choice most home owners and Real Estate Professionals prefer to know who has attended the open house. Each book contains spaces for guests' names, phone numbers, email addresses and Real Estate Professional notes. When the homeowners ask, "Was the open house a success? How many people came through?" you can pull out this professional guest book and show them! Guest Book Girl recommends dedicating a separate book for each of your listings and to always have a few on hand for future open house events. Thank you for choosing a Guest Book Girl book for your Open House.

Crazy Over You Oct 02 2020 She's on the sheriff's most wanted list. Waking up with a naked woman holding a knife at his throat is just about the last thing Sheriff Travis Flynn expected. And the brother she's looking for? A murderer. And dead. Probably. But the real shock comes when she insists she's not a Lycan. LeAnn Wilcox isn't looking for love...especially not from some wolf in sheriff's clothing. She operates on the other side of the law. Once she finds her brother-alive-she'll get out of the pack's territory and go back to her regular, normal, non-furry life of changing jobs and her name whenever her past closes in. The cool, logical Sheriff has finally met his match, but LeAnn's life is at stake if she won't claim her place in the pack, especially once his control over the pack is challenged and her brother's fate is questioned.

Historic Highways of America Jul 11 2021 A series of monographs on the History of America as portrayed in the evolution of its Highways of War, Commerce, and Social Expansion. Comprising the following volumes: Paths of the Mound-Building Indians and Great Game Animals. Indian Thoroughfares. Washington's Road: The First Chapter of the Old French War. Braddock's Road. The Old Glade (Forbes's) Road. Boone's Wilderness Road. Portage Paths: The Keys of the Continent. Military Roads of the Mississippi Basin. Waterways of Westward Expansion. The Cumberland Road. Pioneer Roads of America (two volumes). The Great American Canals (two volumes). The Future of Road-Making in America. If you journey today from Cumberland, Maryland, on the Potomac, across the Alleghanies to Pittsburg on the Ohio, you will follow the most historic highway of America, through scenes as memorable as any on our continent. This book is largely devoted to Washington and his times as seen from the standpoint of the road he opened across the Alleghanies in 1754.

Choose a Better Path Jan 05 2021 Millions of adults have divorced parents. Choose a Better Path provides thought-provoking, helpful, and healing information for adult children of divorce in a user-friendly format. Through workshops, interviews, articles, and international radio programs, Kent Darcie helps adults with divorced parents apply God's healing to triggers, fears, trust issues, anger, father hunger, unforgiveness, and the fallout from gray divorce (empty-nest parents splitting up). As a researcher, author, speaker, therapist, and adult with divorced parents, Kent brings a wealth of information and tools to those who struggle when dealing with parents, steps, ex-steps, and the menagerie of players that come and go in the years that follow the divorce. While never bashing or demeaning divorced parents or others, Kent does tackle the tough and often subtle issues that damage the relationships and marriages of adult children of divorce. If you, or someone you know, have divorced parents, reading Choose a Better Path is an important step toward breaking the cycle of divorce.

Best in Show Oct 26 2022 Best in Show is a collection of photographs of well-groomed and award-winning dogs by New York City-based photographer Dolly Faibyshev. The images from the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show and beyond focus on the unique—and often humorous—relationship between each dog and their handler. Dolly Faibyshev focuses on kitsch, irony, and the larger than life human and canine characters that make up Best in Show. The result is a colorful, vibrant, campy, and satirical take on this specific slice of Americana. • The colorful, closely cropped juxtapositions of each coiffed canine contestant and their dedicated human are both humorous and charming. • Sure to delight fans of all breeds of dogs • A universal and ideal book for all canine lovers with a sense of humor Best in Show captures a specific subculture of dog devotees primarily from the infamous Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show at Madison Square Garden in New York. • A perfect book for anyone who is completely and totally obsessed with dogs and the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show • Photographers and contemporary art lovers will also love this celebration of Dolly Faibyshev's work • Great for fans of The Dogist: Photographic Encounters with 1,000 Dogs by Elias Weiss Friedman, Dogs by Lewis Blackwell and Tim Flach, and Underwater Dogs by Seth Casteel

The Biological Standard Of Living On Three Continents Mar 07 2021 The effort of anthropometric historians to unearth the broad patterns of human biological well-being has led to the examination of nearly forgotten, centuries-old records from dusty archives in practically all the continents of the globe. French historians in the Annales tradition were among the first to adopt methods from physical anthropology and from the biological sciences, but the real expansion of the field dates from the pathbreaking work of Richard Steckel and Robert Fogel, which launched the discipline of anthropometric history on American soil. Research has confirmed that physical stature is related to nutritional status and therefore to real family income, and thus to the general standard of living. Historians and development economists will find this line of research useful, as it informs us about the standard of living of members of society for whom data on wages are seldom available—women, children, aristocrats, farmers, and slaves. In addition, this research has shown that the biological standard of living may diverge from conventional indicators of welfare during the early stages of industrialization. Thus, per capita income is an ambiguous measure of welfare during some phases of growth, and it must be supplemented with data from other indicators, such as physical stature. The essays in this volume broaden our knowledge of the human effects of the momentous economic changes of the last two centuries, extending analysis to regions for which such information has been lacking, including Russia, Canada, Indonesia, Italy, and Spain.

The Amish Quiltmaker's Unruly In-Law Nov 27 2022 Moving to a new Amish settlement in small-town Colorado was a brave new start for independent-minded quiltmaker Esther Kiem. But helping her reckless relative will really put her special matchmaking skills to the test . . . Mischievous and rebellious, young Ben Kiem is making the wrong kind of name for himself throughout the town of Byler. And even though his sister-in-law, Esther, somehow coaxes him into keeping company with sensible Linda Eicher, Ben can't see anything they have in common. Or that he could ever be good enough for someone like her. But Linda's down-to-earth nature and unexpected understanding have Ben trying his best to be better, no matter how challenging . . . Linda couldn't be more surprised when Ben turns out to be caring and helpful, despite his rowdy pranks and bad-news friends. And falling in love with him suddenly seems just right. But when a heartbreaking misunderstanding comes between them, both she and Ben must risk enough to trust, stitch the pieces back together—and dare a forever precious happiness. Praise for Jennifer Beckstrand and Abraham "This is an endearing romance that fans of Wanda Brunstetter will love." —Publishers Weekly

At just six days old, Mary Stuart became Queen of Scots. At just six years old she was betrothed to the Dauphin François, the future King of France. Reluctantly leaving Scotland, Mary is raised in the decadent French court in preparation to become the Queen of France. But her reign with François is short-lived. Widowed at just eighteen years old, Mary is once again forced to leave her home to return to Scotland. Now a Catholic queen of a Protestant country, Mary must rule with caution and choose her next husband prudently...
